Intercontinental Trust Breakfast Seminar at the Mining Indaba 2014 Conference Mauritius: Your investment platform into Africa

Intercontinental Trust Ltd kicked off 2014 with an exclusive breakfast event in collaboration with Barclays Bank Mauritius Ltd and Africa Business Solutions at the African Mining Indaba 2014. The event was held at Park Inn by Radisson in Cape Town on the 5th February 2014. The breakfast seminar has been an opportunity for sharing of ideas, interactive discussions and high level networking – all in time to be back to the third day of the Mining Indaba 2014 Conference.

Intercontinental Trust Ltd continues to promote Mauritius as the investment platform into Africa. Mauritius plays an integral role in the African boom by positioning itself as a unique international financial centre with strong cultural and commercial ties with Africa. The topics covered were on the benefits of structuring of mining/exploration companies through Mauritius; the status and clarification of the Double Taxation Agreement (“DTA”) between South Africa and Mauritius and the banking solutions for the Pan-African Investments. Our CEO, Ben Lim, opened the seminar by speaking on the structuring mining/exploration companies through Mauritius.

He further elaborated on the key requirements and advantages to list mineral/exploration companies on the Stock Exchange of Mauritius (“SEM”), the post listing obligations, the standard disclosure for mineral resources, reserves and exploration results and practical case scenarios. The second key speaker from the Director of Africa Business Solutions, Kemp Munnik, updated the audience on the status of the DTA between South Africa and Mauritius. The final presentation came from Graham Sheward, Corporate Director-International Banking of Barclays Bank Mauritius Ltd who gave an overview on the banking solutions for the Pan-African Investments.

The Breakfast Seminar was a great success with over 50 high profile delegates ranging from financier, investors, mining professionals, and government officials attending the event. Intercontinental Trust Ltd would like to thank the speakers and everyone who participated in the breakfast seminar.
